LibrisNotes: Heartbeat by Elizabeth Scott

Elizabeth Scott's "Heartbeat" is a YA about a young woman named Emma who has a mother who has died but is not gone as her body is being kept alive so that the baby she is carrying can be delivered. The premise is timely and I'm kind of surprised that it hasn't been explored more because it would be a tough situation and even in theory, it would likely prolong a mourning period because there ...

Heartbeat Elizabeth Scott - rosadelalba.com.mx

Scott delivers an intriguing novel with a "straight from the headlines" feel. Unfortunately, a few problems detract from the overall success of the story. Caleb's parents are one-dimensional and seem to exist solely as a backdrop for his bad-boy persona while Emma's change of heart comes so quickly and completely that it lacks emotional punch.
