Player One What Is To

Player One: What Is to Become of Us is a novel written by Douglas Coupland for the 2010 Massey Lectures. Each of the book's five chapters was delivered as a one-hour lecture in a different Canadian city: Vancouver on October 12, Regina on October 14, Charlottetown on October 19, Ottawa on October 25 and ending in Toronto on October 29. The lectures were broadcast on CBC Radio One's Ideas ...

Player one is described on it's back cover as "A real-time five-hour story set in an airport cocktail lounge during a global disaster." And this is, superficially, how one may describe the book. In fact the setting is a mere technicality which the author uses to hold together the few disparate individuals.

Player One: What Is to Become of Us by Douglas Coupland

Player One is not typical of this trend, In this novel Douglas writes way more punctually to the point and to the reader. Coupland takes many controversial issues today and brings them all to a crux at a major earth-shifting crisis in Player One. This novel is suspenseful, and contemplative of our modern culture.
